

Writing Lab Graduate Consultant Application 2009-2010

Please fill out the following application and return it to the Writing Lab by 6:00 pm on Monday, February 2, 2009. After you submit your application, two of current Writing Lab consultants will contact you to set up a time to meet with you, discuss your application, and answer your questions. Thanks again for your interest in joining our staff. We're looking forward to meeting you!

For more information about tutoring in the Writing Lab, please see the FAQs at <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/writinglab/opportunities>.

1. Name: _____
Office number: _____ Office phone: _____
Home phone: _____ Email: _____

2. Degree you are pursuing: _____
Major field of study: _____

3. How many more years do you expect to be at Purdue? _____

4. Courses you have taught at Purdue: _____

5. In which mentor groups have you been enrolled?

6. Please list any specialized areas of expertise you may possess, such as ESL, business writing, technical writing, creative writing, technology, etc.

7. Please tell us why you would like to tutor in the Writing Lab.

8. Please list your strong points as a tutor/teacher of writing.

9. How do you see yourself participating in the growth and development of the Writing Lab? Are there projects or areas of development that you would be interested in pursuing, such as OWL projects, workshops, instructional materials, etc.?

10. What else would you like us to know about you? For instance, do you have prior experience in a writing center, instructional technology experience, interest or experience in writing program administration, etc.?

Thank you for your interest in the Writing Lab. Please contact us if you have questions about the Writing Lab or the application process. We look forward to meeting you!